

Dr. Steven Hughes - Neuropsychologist

Good At Doing Things

Learn why this leading expert in the field of brain function says kids who learn through Montessori are simply, "Good At Doing Things."

When:
Thursday
Oct. 8th
7-9 p.m.

Where:
CU Campus
Hellems 201

Cost: $10 in advance or $15 at the door

For More Information Contact:

Patience
Montessori
School 303-449-5214
or [jillgittenaloia
@yahoo.com](mailto:jillgittenaloia@yahoo.com)

A must attend, highly visual, rapid-paced & entertaining lecture for anyone interested in a child's education. Given around the world, Dr. Hughes answers the question, "How can we build better brains?"

Learn how to foster the development of advanced cognitive functions & discover the foundation for better development of academic, social & executive functions critical for advanced problem solving & lifetime success.

Child Care Providers: Get credit towards your state required 15
annual training
hours, certificates available at the event.

"Really Inspiring!"

-London Attendee

"One of the best presenters I have ever Seen"

-Atlanta Attendee

Dr. Hughes is a Pediatric Neuropsychologist & Diplomat of the American Board of Pediatric Neuropsychology.

Event Sponsored by The Patience Montessori School Parents Committee & University of Colorado Psychology and Neuroscience Department.

